The Challenge Today

In today's world, risks are not few. An enterprise faces various risks and challenges and is subject to uncertainties and negative impacts from these risks. Managing risks is your key to untapped opportunities that till now were capitalized only when risk factors moved in your favor.

Corporate Governance is the system by which companies are directed and controlled, in the interest of shareholders and other stakeholders, to sustain and enhance value.

Operational Risk

"As per Bank of International Settlements (BIS), "Managing Operational Risk is becoming an important feature of sound risk management practice in modern financial markets. The most important types of operational risk involve breakdowns in internal controls and corporate governance. Such breakdowns can lead to financial losses through error, fraud, or failure to perform in a timely manner or cause the interests of the bank to be compromised in some other way, for example, by its dealers, lending officers or other staff exceeding their authority or conducting business in an unethical or risky manner. Other aspects of operational risk include major failure of information technology systems or events such as major fires or other disasters."

Value Proposition

ERM's Value Proposition

ERM Consulting provides specialized risk consulting services to medium sized corporate that have experienced rapid growth, operate in a highly uncertain and competitive business environment or operate in a highly regulated industry. Most of these companies' existing monitoring and reporting structures do not provide a robust framework that is needed to manage risks effectively. ERM Consulting provides the necessary framework to identify, measure and manage most of the risk areas impacting your organization. This framework reduces risks to acceptable levels and aligns them to corporate strategies and objectives.

By choosing ERM, clients receive quality services typically provided by large sized clients, but at fee levels normally charged by independent and small consulting firms. ERM's delivery capabilities, by tapping our strategic alliances, match those of large consulting firms and ensures timely completion of engagements.
